

IDENTITY THEFT AFFIDAVIT INSTRUCTIONS

To make certain that you do not become responsible for the debts incurred by the identity thief, you must provide proof that you did not create the debt to each of the companies where accounts were opened or used in your name.

A working group composed of credit grantors, consumer advocates, and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) developed this Identity Theft Affidavit to help you report information to many companies using just one standard form. Use of this affidavit is optional for companies. While many companies accept this affidavit, others require that you submit more or different forms. Before you send the affidavit, contact each company to find out if they accept it.

You can use this affidavit where a new account was opened in your name. The information will enable the companies to investigate the fraud and decide the outcome of your claim. (If someone made unauthorized charges to an existing account, call the company to find out what to do.)

This affidavit has two parts:

1. Identity Theft Affidavit – This is where you report general information about yourself and the theft; and
2. Fraudulent Account Statement – This is where you describe the fraudulent account(s) opened in your name. Use a separate Fraudulent Account Statement for each company you need to write to.

When you send the affidavit to the companies, attach copies (NOT originals) of any supporting documents (for example, driver's license or police report) you have. Before submitting your affidavit, review the disputed account(s) with family members or friends who may have information about the account(s) or access to them.

Here are some important steps you should take during the process:

1. Complete this affidavit as soon as possible. Many creditors ask that you send it within two weeks of receiving it. Delaying could slow the investigation.
2. Be as accurate and complete as possible. You may choose not to provide some of the information requested. However, incorrect or incomplete information will slow the process of investigating your claim and absolving the debt. Please print clearly.

When you have finished completing the affidavit, mail a copy to each creditor, bank or company that provided the thief with the unauthorized credit, goods or services you describe. Attach to each affidavit a copy of the Fraudulent Account Statement with information only on accounts opened at the institution receiving the packet, as well as any other supporting documentation you are able to provide.

3. Send the appropriate documents to each company by certified mail, return receipt requested. This step can prove that it was received. The companies will review your claim and send you a written response telling you the outcome of their investigation.
4. Keep a copy of everything you submit for your records. If you cannot complete the affidavit, a legal guardian or someone with power of attorney may complete it for you. Except as noted, the information you provide will be used only by the company to process your affidavit, investigate the events you report and help stop further fraud. If this affidavit is requested in a lawsuit, the company might have to provide it to the requesting party.

Completing this affidavit does not guarantee that the identity thief will be prosecuted or that the debt will be cleared.

ADDITIONAL IDENTITY THEFT PROCEDURES

If you have not already done so, report the fraud to the following organizations:

1. Each of the three national consumer reporting agencies. Ask each agency to place a fraud alert on your credit report, and send you a copy of your credit file. When you have completed your affidavit packet, you may want to send them a copy to help them investigate the disputed accounts.

Equifax Credit Information Services, Inc. - (800) 525-6285/ TDD 800-255-0056. Ask the operator to call the Auto Disclosure Line at 800-685-1111 to obtain a copy of your report. P.O. Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374-0241. <https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services/>.

Experian information Solutions, Inc. - (888) 397-3742/ TDD (800) 972-0322. P.O. Box 9530, Allen, TX 75013. <https://www.experian.com/help/>.

Trans Union – (888) 909-8872. TransUnion.com/credit-help

2. The fraud department at each creditor, bank, or utility/service that provided the identity thief with unauthorized credit, goods or services. This would be a good time to find out if the company accepts this affidavit, and whether they require notarization or a copy of the police report.
3. Your local police department. Ask the officer to take a report and give you a copy of the report. Sending a copy of your police report to financial institutions can speed up the process of absolving you of wrongful debts or removing inaccurate information from your credit reports. If you cannot get a copy, at least get the number of the report.
4. The FTC, which maintains the Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse - the federal government's centralized identity theft complaint database - and provides information to identity theft victims. You can visit <http://www.consumer.gov/idtheft> or call toll-free 877-ID-THEFT (877-438-4338).

The FTC collects complaints from identity theft victims and shares their information with law enforcement nationwide. This information also may be shared with other government agencies, consumer reporting agencies, and companies where the fraud was perpetrated to help resolve identity theft related problems.

5. Other governmental agencies or services, such as:

Postal Inspection Service – Contact the Postal Inspector at your local post office in the event you believe your mail was stolen or redirected. <http://www.usps.com>.

Social Security Fraud Hotline - Call this hotline (800-269-0271) in the event you suspect someone is using your Social Security number for fraudulent purposes.

Department of Motor Vehicles – Contact your local department of motor vehicles (DMV) if you believe someone is trying to obtain a driver's license or identification card using your name and information. <http://www.dmv.org>.

NOTE: In addition to the above recommendations, please carefully review all of your accounts, related statements and all charges and transactions. You should continue this review process over a reasonable period of time since identity theft takes time to completely resolve. You should immediately report any discrepancies.
